PIANO FORTE TUNING AND REGULATING.

THE SUBSCRIBER, having engaged the services of Mr. E. T. Hurlbut, a competent and experienced tuner, is now prepared to attend to all orders with which he may be favored. The following testimonial to Mr. Hurlbut's capability is from the director of the celebrated Germania Musical Society:

March 27, 1855.

It is with much pleasure that I commend Mr. E. T. Hurlbut as a Piano Forte Tuner and regulator. To say that he is an excellent tuner, would not be doing him justice, for I can without hesitation say that he is capable of tuning a Piano as near to perfection as it is possible for a Piano to be tuned; but the greatest recommendation for him is the unusual length of time which his Pianos remain in tune. I have never, either in Europe or America, seen a man whom I would so cheerfully and with so much confidence employ to tune or regulate a Piano Forte as Mr. Hurlbut, and as cheerfully recommend him to all who want Pianos tuned.

NOTICE TO ICE CONSUMERS.

THE UNDERSIGNED, the oldest ICE trader in the City of Milwaukee, would inform the Public that he, as usual, will cut his Ice in the neighborhood of the Harbor, in order to procure the clearest and best Ice; and also that he will place around the holes which he cuts in the Ice, blocks of Ice as a fence, that everybody may be warned from danger. The cutting will commence about the First of January.

If the Common Council will appoint an overseer, I should have no objection, and I would even pay the expenses, should it be required.

I am confident that the Public will appreciate my endeavors to serve them with the best Ice, at the same time guarding them from danger.

THE various man-hunting expeditions which have, within the last few years, been made into the North, and the numerous trials, including the Jerry, the Sims, the Burns, and similar cases, and the crowning act of infamy enacted by have excited the profoundest indignation and alarm. The Publishers believe, therefore, that this amply attested and clearly drawn record of what judges have done, will lead the people to see what, if unchecked, judges may still do.

JUDGE KANE UPON PASSMORE WILLIAMSON,

Christadoro's Hair Dye still Triumphant!

CONTRAST the tints brought out in the hair by Christadoro's matchless revitalizing Hair Dye, and those produced by application of the burning fluids ordinarily sold as Hair Dyes, you see at once that the color is natural in one case, unnatural in the other, and the simple reason is that Christadoro's is the ONLY preparation which by its exact chemical combination operates on natural and immutable principles. CONGREGATIONAL SINGING.

UNQUESTIONABLY the best and most useful Hymn and Tune Book yet published for the use of Lectures, Prayer, and Conference meetings, Social Worship and Congregational Singing, is Temple Melodies.

This work contains five hundred Hymns and two hundred Tunes. It has been pronounced the best collection of sacred lyrical poetry ever issued, and undoubtedly embraces a larger number of really favorite tunes already used throughout the length and breadth of the land than any similar work. It has also the advantage of being furnished at a very low price, thus bringing it within the range of almost all congregations. TEMPLE MELODIES is already in very extensive use, and is constantly being more widely introduced. Letters from many clergymen, speaking in the highest terms of its utility, are in the hands of the publishers. We earnestly invite the attention of clergymen, and all others who are interested in securing a general participation in the singing exercises of Divine Worship, to this work.

To meet the wants of all, two editions of TEMPLE MELODIES are published—one in large, and the other in small type. In other respects, these editions are, page for page precisely alike, so that they can be used together in the same congregation. The prices are as follows:

Twelvemo Ed. (small type,) cloth binding per doz. $5,00
The same in leather binding, per doz. ... 6,00
Octavo Ed. (large type,) cloth binding, per doz. ... 7,00
The same, in leather binding, per doz ... 8,00
Single copies sent for examination, on the the receipt of ... 50

F. M. LANE'S
PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT.
Important Improvement in Painting!

A PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT for interior work has long been a desideratum. All paints prepared from Linseed Oil, will rapidly turn from the lightest and most opposite tints to the yellow color of the oil itself; the change being the more rapid as the paint is excluded from the full light of day.

The subscriber, after a sufficiently long experience in its use, can recommend it as the only Gloss Paint in which this important defect is effectually remedied. This beautiful paint can be applied of any color, from the purest white, resembling enamel or porcelain, to all the different varieties of tints, suitable for private dwellings, Churches, Hotels, &c., whilst in brilliancy and richness of surface it surpasses all other paints; it possesses superior advantages in retaining permanently even the most delicate colors with which it is combined.

Also, Plain and Ornamental Painting, decoration of Private Dwellings, Churches, &c., Sign and Fancy Painting. F. M. LANE, 22 Spring street,

☞ The opinion of a Lady who knows Frank M. Wever and has bought goods at

WEVER'S
DRY GOOD PALACE
AND CARPET ROOMS!

Come to the Palace, oh come there with me,
Where Fashion, 'mid splendor, still holds her levee
And smilingly tells you that Beauty is sold,
To youth, or to age, in exchange for their gold;
And their Lady-like charms through life may prolong,
In robes like a Queen's, which sell for a song.
They've shawls for the taste, and shawls for the storm,
They've cloaks which fall softly, so rich, and so warm,
They've carpets of Wilton, of Velvet, and Brussels
They've laces, and 'broideries, ribbons, and tassels,
They've sombre hued goods, for the weeping, and sad,
They've silks like the sunshine, for merry and glad,
They've fabrics for millions, and hold their levee,
For those who pay tribute, or come but to see,
If Palace of Dry Goods, so wonderous grand,
Can be aught but a fable, of old Fairyland;
But those who know WEVER, can't doubt for a minute,
This glorious Palace, and all that is in it. C. H. G.

Now I blush, indeed I do, what modest married man would not? Yet I console myself with the idea that beauty always pays tribute to worth and merit. Thanking sincerely yet humbly my fair contributor, I trust that by honesty, uprightness and my gentlemanly bearing, I may ever command her respect. F. M. WEVER,

News of the Morning.

The Committee on elections in the House of Representatives have reported their resolution for drawing to send for persons and papers to ascertain whether Reader Whitfield has the right to claim to the seat.

The Massachusetts Know Nothings, like most of their New England brethren and those of the West, repudiate the nomination of Mr Fillmore for the Presidency.

The civil war continues in Mexico from which they are quarrelling about nobody seems to know.

A variety of interesting news items will be found under the telegraph and local heads.

The Senate have confirmed the right of Judge Trumbull of Illinois, to a seat in that body, by a decisive vote. The debate yesterday in Senate, on Kansas matters, seems to have been pretty sharp.

The Meeting To-Night.

The KANSAS AID MEETING takes place at Young Hall this evening. The object commends itself strongly to the best instincts and warmest affections of our nature that we confidently expect to see the Hall filled with earnest and enthusiastic friends of Freedom. How much necessity exists for prompt and united action to resist the aggressions of Slavery, the eloquent extract in this morning's paper sufficiently tells. The shaded portion of the map is the future battle field between Slavery and Freedom. Let not Wisconsin be wanting in the effort to make Freedom National and Slavery sectional.

THE MADISON PAPERS.—Our Madison exchanges come very irregularly. Yesterday we received none at all and the Patriot and Journal are almost always one mail behind.

Steam Ferry across Lake Michigan.

We had the pleasure of a call, yesterday forenoon from our old friend and former fellow citizen Capt COTTON, for several years past the efficient Agent for the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway. Capt Cotton brings with him the plans for the Steamers to be built to connect the Michigan with the Wisconsin Railways, plying between Grand Haven and Milwaukee. The boat proposed will cost in the neighborhood of $160,000 register about 1600 tons, be regular ocean going vessels and cross the Lake in all ordinary weather, in from four to four and a half hours. We hope that our Business Men, Capitalists and others interested in the matter will take a look at the Captain's plan, and when in this counsel. He tells us that the Detroit and Milwaukee Road will be finished to Grand Haven by June, 1857, and that the Port Huron and Milwaukee Railway (connecting with the Detroit and Lake Huron) is all under contract and will be finished about the same time that the Detroit and Milwaukee Road reaches Lake Michigan. With both these roads finished and in operation our Steam Ferry will be crowded with business during nine months, at least in each year.

CHICAGO CHARTER ELECTION.—This contest the most contested ever known in Chicago drew out the enormous number of 3700 votes—some two thousand higher than ever before cast—and resulted in the election of Mr THOS DYER, as Mayor by some 11 majority. The Times of yesterday says

The following are the reported majorities for Mayor in each ward. These are not of course absolutely correct but doubtless sufficiently so to render the election to Mr Dyer certain:

Wards	Dyer	Sherman
First	—	4
Second	—	211
Third	—	81
Fourth,	84	—
Fifth,	—	117
Sixth,	49	—
Seventh,	670	—
Eighth,	34	—
Ninth,	238	—
Total,	127	81

This makes Mr Dyer's majority four hundred and sixty, which is probably not very far from the returns to be made by the officers of the polls.

We learn that Mr James Long is elected Alderman in the first Ward, and Mr Willard in the second. Both these gentlemen are Republicans. The probability is that Mr Baldwin Anti Nebraska, is elected Alderman in the Third Ward, and the Anti Nebraska Alderman in the Fifth Ward is also reported to be elected.

The Tribune attributes the election of Mr Dyer to the free use of money and liquor, and to wholesale illegal voting.

THE CONTEST.

FROM MADISON

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel

MADISON, March 4 1856

In Senate this morning Mr Dewey introduced a resolution directing the civil section of carving out new judicial circuit for every two or three new counties when there may be one of the Judges who happens to reside therein.

A large pile of bills passed by the Assembly by wholesale, was brought in by the Clerk.

The bill providing for such an amendment to the charter of Milwaukee and Beloit R R Co as will allow them to organize with $50,000 subscribed instead of $100,000 was this morning introduced in Senate by Mr Hadley. The rule was suspended and passed. It was also passed in the Assembly, and is doubtless signed by the Executive.

The Assembly has been all day upon the Lafayette County Seat question as a special order a highly interesting subject to all who are concerning about it.

The Capital Punishment bill still hangs by a why, I do not know but I think the days when four fifths of the tenants of Wisconsin State prison are annually pardoned by the Executive, happily to be expected that legislator should endeavor to arrange so that as many as possible shall be committed to Wisconsin. It is horrible, so execrable to the taste that the civilized mob is excited to do nearly as it pleases in murders that it do not wonder if a number of the Assembly decline to restore the death penalty by law. How long are the people to submit that the Executive shall have such a terrible offence as to punish at the extreme penalty no greater security than heretofore, and refuse to their demands be paid by a pardon. How long shall men rise the bloody hand and then follow, saying the while—"I only am guilty of one offence at best." How long, I say, etc.

Quite an interesting debate took place in the Senate this afternoon upon the bill providing funds for the Asylum for the Blind. Whether entering into the disputed question as to whether that institution is conducted with as much economy as may be, (and it seems to be the case) the Trustees have managed well, it is certainly safe to suppose that the people desire that the most ultimate and interesting class of our citizens should be treated with prudent liberality.

A bill sometime since introduced by Mr Warrington providing a penalty of punishment for the vagabond scoundrels who rob the orchards and gardens of their fruit met with the opposition of Mr Barber on the ground that the penalty seemed disproportioned to the offence, and that poor children who were in search for fruit from trees, might be disgraced by imprisonment. The bill was so framed by Mr Warrington, who also edits the noses, as to confine the construction given to the present statute, and passed to a third reading by a vote of 11 to 9.

The question of an appropriation for the Lunatic Asylum will probably not be reached for some days to come. All the citizens are sanguine that by his religion, were sternly followed by his great master, Mahomed, of whom he is a devoted follower, and commended by him to be observed in the Koran. While we look most poignantly as we shall from crime, to time it not here appears until some one, but a similar offence, prostitution and brutality with as hardly considered evil. The world in estimation be crimes of the darkest grade. Now take it to consideration the effect upon society, the wrongs and injuries, the blight and misery it everlasts upon individual life, and one may well ponder and ask himself he question which nearest right the Christian, or the heathen.

A Hawk is before the Tusk is solitary and alone in his smoking hours. No friends or neighbor can in the circle to have his reverses and meditations. It is true they are all around him, lost in their own thought but each their not other's thoughts. The pipe most generally used by the common people is one of red clay of a round over bulge appearance into which a stems of rush for to tentive is stuck. With the poor class the stem are made of cherry with the bark on and are so made that there can be taken apart by the separate joints and stowed away in some one of their capacious pockets.—With the more wealthy classes the material is of jasmine which is very flexible with amber or the piece and is not frequently are the gilt tering with jewels and precious stones. The Pipe is never carry the own paper. These are follow'd by their slaves or servants as the case may be who bear all appendages. Those of not any fashionables are well dressed and carry the pipes in cases of velvet or some such cases something like those which fiddlers with us carry their musical instrument. But with the wealthy and more refined are taught to smoke and to be in process of being sold by the Fox & Wisconsin River Improvement Co. From various intimations which have appeared in the papers I judge that the subject will excite great interest in the section of country where the roads are. The Committee, it is understood will report in favor unanimously, a bill directing the Governor to sell the lands and hold the proceeds for the still further legislation, and providing penalties against the sale of the lands by the officers of the said Company.

MORE KNOW NOTHING.—The Governor Senate Council of Massachusetts have resolved to and by their own platform, promulgated a Spring held, in August last and repudiate the nomination of FILLMORE and DONELSON. The Albany Register, the leading KNOW NOTHING organ in New York, boldly the ticket outright, and denounces as the offspring of corrupt slavery Silver Grey union.

DEATH OF JONATHAN DAUGHERTY.—We copy with sincere regret the following paragraph from the last Oshkosh Courier:

With sorrowful feelings we announce the death of Jonathan Daugherty, Esq., late editor of the Oshkosh Democrat. He expired at his residence in this city this afternoon, after a short but severe illness.—Mr Daugherty was well known throughout the State as a writer and influential citizen, and was much esteemed by men of all parties, as an amiable and upright man. He leaves a wife and children and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss.

WHISKEY AND MURDER.—We have the following facts from a gentleman just from the country:

At a Boarding House in Grand Rapids, [Portage Co.] on Sunday, Feb 24th, a young German named Christian Ryner, in compliance with the earnest solicitation of his associates, procured a quantity of whisker with which to "make merry" his birth day. At about 10 o'clock in the evening, the party being drunk [of course] got into a row, in which one Geo B Bailey, a stout Englishman set upon Ryner, but was taken off. After he affray, Ryner having retired to bed, came went up stairs to his room, and stabbed him in the breast, reaching the heart. Upon which, Ryner prang to the door crying I am stabbed—and finally succeeded in giving the alarm. Lane meantime continued the work of death—stabbing his victim four times in the breast, inflicting a severe cut on the side of the neck. Ryner died in a few moments. Lane the murderer, is in custody. Is the above a new feature in the effects of the Rum Traffic.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov 26th 1855

Most of the future of the Turk of late when not at his devotions is employed in smoking all whose time is filled with innumerable little Cafés, which are in front in the open air and in balconies and there they sit one would think during the hole day, with four hours in perfect silence drawing on their long red clay pipes and when the mouth piece full letting the smoke gradually come out of the nose, thus forming two little blue columns ascending from the nasal organ. Many of them I the more accurate from the oriental artist or interval something like the puffing of a small steam engine indoubtedly with a view of prolonging the pleasing tickling sensations they thus bring to the others important tubes.

The Mussulman garment is beyond all description. In the dress he has a word to say on any occasion, and cannot be led in to any exuberance of choice whether of pleasure or pain. Save to and from the mosque, he will not stroll. Not unstanding many of them are rich, living in trade and like to sell their good yet one may stand around half an hour and it would be seldom that he could catch the eye of the Turk. Whether this arises from affected indifference to determine and offer to buy or an amusement either in willing or passing along in front of their little shop I never could satisfy with very few exceptions one of them looking at me.

The Turk at heart is naturally honest, and I find it unwise in placing him in every point of view far ahead of the Asiatic races here, not only in regards but in all the social virtues that adorn and soften the human heart. He is proverbial for his affection for his children and family, kind to his old slave and is hospitality to strangers and tender mess to wards the brute creation. The doves and pigeons inhabit here in quies the swallows and sparrow build their nest in his balcony, the dogs in whom he has no individual interest, keep in his doorway on the cushions by it on hands float and skim under the Polyphonia and Golden Horn. Temperance and frugality are his predominant virtues. All the evils are strictly taught him by his religion, were sternly followed by his great master, Mahomed of whom he is a devoted follower, and commended by him to be observed in the Koran. While we look most poignantly as we shall from crime, to time it not here appears until some one, but a similar offence, prostitution and brutality with as hardly considered evil. Circuit Court, March 5.

JUDGE HUBBELL, PRESIDING.

The Circuit Court was densely crowded at an early hour to witness the efforts at empanneling a Jury in the Singer murder case. Up to 11 o'clock but three jurors unbiassed had been found, although thirty-one had been subjected to the examination. The Judge directed the issue of a special venire, returnable at 3 P. M.

The counsel of Spencer and wife, moved the Court to pass sentence upon Sybil Spencer, convicted of keeping a house of ill fame under one indictment with her husband, separately. And in making the motion, alleged as a reason why the Court should be lenient in the sentence, that after the unfortunate affair (the murder) happened in Spencer's house, the female defendant at once made up her mind to abandon that kind of business, &c.

The Court, after hearing the remarks of Mr. Doran, and hinting to the counsel very plainly that he placed no reliance upon their truth, told the woman to stand up and receive her sentence. His Honor alluded to the clearness of the evidence that the defendant had for a long time kept a house of prostitution for profit—that it was her that he regarded as the greatest criminal of the two—that she had been shown to be a foul mouthed polluted and entirely abandoned woman—that she had kept for a long time a house into which the youth of both sexes were drawn to be sacrificed for her profit—that she was the principal offender, that even after the death of Singer occurred, and while the corpse was still in the house, the business was still carried on.

The Court alluded to the two girls sworn as witnesses, and who had come direct to the house from brothels in Chicago, and who, in his opinion, had committed perjury on the stand.

The defendant denied this, but was interrupted by the Court, who continued the remarks, alluding to officers being mistaken in supposing they had done an act of kindness in not having broken up such places; that it was their duty as officers to stop such places; he hoped that while the defendant was in the State Prison she would reflect, and when she came out would lead a virtuous life.—The sentence of one year in the State Prison with hard labor, was then passed upon her.

The last words had hardly left the lips of the Judge when the shameless and abandoned convict asked, "Is that all? That ain't much! Why didn't you give me twelve?" and in reply to another remark of the Judge, as she was leaving the Court, exclaimed, "If he had given her twelve years, she should have come out fresh." She was then taken back to jail by the officers, and the Court took a recess to 3 o'clock.

Trial of John B. Spencer, for the Murder of John Singer, Dec. 27th, 1855.—James A. Mallory, District Attorney, for the State, John L. Doran for the defense.

Afternoon Session.—At a quarter past 3 a jury was found and sworn in, as follows—two only of the first named jurors having been obtained from the first panel, the rest from a special venire:

Josiah Knowlton,	Lucius D. Marsh,
James Martin,	Mahlen Keeler,
Edward G. Hayden,	Reuben Chase,
John Crawford,	Thomas Gillis,
Robert Painter,	Reuben Strong,
William Raymond,	George Paddock.

After the District Attorney had read the indictment, and very briefly stated to the jury what the prosecution expected to prove, the first witness was called.

Jeremiah Donahue, sworn—Was present at the difficulty between Spencer and Singer, the deceased, they had had words, Spencer wanted to fight; prisoner tried to get deceased to fight several times; deceased said he could lick a dozen such men as Spencer, one after another; Spencer then went back behind the bar, got a big stone and threw it at Singer, who dodged it; Spencer then came and struck at Singer with a knife that he got somewhere and missed him. Singer turned to witness and said "this is too bad." Spencer then turned and told Singer to leave his house; got his gun, pulled the trigger and shot Singer, standing right behind the bar when he shot him. While Singer was lying on the floor, Spencer said, "G—d d—n him, he's not half shot. Give him some sour crout and vinegar and that'll bring him too."

Witness continued, "Spencer got the gun from a beer closet right joining the bar;" witness then left for a doctor; Singer died three days afterwards.

On the cross-examination the witness stated that a man named William Greer tried to have Spencer and Singer take a drink and settle it, to which Spencer replied, he'd be d—d if he would, this was a few minutes before the shooting took place. Witness expressly denied having told any person that he would swear hard enough to send Spencer to State Prison; what he did say was that he thought the defendant ought to be punished for what he had done to that man; had no recollection of having heard Spencer tell the bar keeper to notice the time, or to have given Singer any time in which he was to leave the house in; didn't hear Spencer tell Singer but once to leave the house.

A hard looking customer was brought in from the jail, named Charles Gibney, and shown to the witness, who denied ever having told him that he would swear Spencer into the State Prison.

John Brown, sworn—This witness, was bar keeper in Spencer's house, and was present when the shooting took place. His testimony was like the first witness up to the time when the stone was flung at Singer. The witness stated, "next Spencer took a knife and 'dabbed' at Singer, it, didn't know whether it cut him or not, Singer then turned round, "Boys, it's too bad." Singer then came towards Spencer, who ran past me, got the gun, and that was the last of it. Singer came towards me with both hands on his stomach and said, 'Jack, I'm shot.'" Witness told him to get his clothes off as quick as he could and he'd go for a doctor; as the witness left the house, saw Singer roll off the bench on to the floor. "After the horse was saddled I came back into the middle room and asked Spencer if I should get some officers, he said 'No! the officers be d—d; He ain't half shot, the sour crout son of a b—h, give him some vinegar and he'll come too. I had ought to have shot him in the head." Witness then left and procured doctor Hector. He further identified the gun in court as the one with which Singer was shot, and said it was kept loaded, and stated also that "Singer had hold of the knob of the door in the act of leaving the room when Spencer shot him, and that the door led to hall where there was a door leading into the road; that before and after the shooting, Spencer said 'revenge was sweet and he'd have it;' alleging as the cause of his seeking it, that Singer had made trouble in his (Spencer's) family in Dubuque."

At the end of this witness's testimony no cross examination was had, the defendant's counsel waiving it.

Court adjourned to 9 o'clock this morning, the Jury went to their homes charged by the Judge not to converse with any person concerning the murder, and if anybody talked to them to notify the Court.

Police Court, March 5.

Stealing from a Money Drawer.—A boy twelve years old, named Henry Osterbach, was brought round from the Watch House, charged with stealing from the money drawer in the shop of Robert Hibbard, the night previous $5; the boy waived an examination, and was committed for trial at the next term of the Circuit Court, and in default of bail was sent to jail.

The Opera of "Stradella."—The admirable manner in which our Milwaukee Musical Society produced for the first time, on Tuesday evening, Flotow's Opera of "Alessandro Stradella," deserves more than the brief encomium we passed on it yesterday. Great pains had been taken with the previous rehearsals, and a liberal expenditure incurred in preparing new scenery, dresses, &c. The fruit of this expense and labor was seen in the triumphant success of the first representation. The leading parts were remarkably well sung and acted; those of the principal bandit in particular, and of Leonora, eliciting the unqualified praise of the audience. The orchestra acquitted itself admirably, and in the softer passages the accompaniment of the first violin and flute were exquisitely rendered. The chorus was powerful, effective and well drilled, while the different phases of the Masquerade and Ballet and of the Fairy scene, were chracterised by equal grace and spirit. Mr. Balatka, the accomplished conductor, presided with his usual ability, controlling with his magic baton, the movements of his little army, and carrying orchestra, chorus and performers along in harmonious measure. The audience testified, by frequent and enthusiastic plaudits, their extreme gratification with the performance. It was decidedly the most successful representation ever given by our Musical Society, and might safely challenge the sharpest criticism. We take it for granted that "Stradella" will be again performed at an early day, and do not doubt that our musical public will insist on several repetitions.

The Opera will be re peated, on Tuesday evening next for the benefit of Mr. Balatka.

Cut her Throat—Attempt to commit Suicide.—A woman, whose name we were unable to learn, attempted to commit suicide on Tuesday afternoon, by cutting her throat. Dr. Hatchard was sent for and immediately dressed the wound, and has hopes of saving her life. The woman lived in Granville, about eight miles from the city, had been, until within the last two months, a widow. The husband had gone East, and it appears she had by some means labored under the idea that he would never return, which seemed to have preyed upon her mind. No weapon could be found with which the wound was inflicted, and the woman refused to disclose with what it was done. There is some mystery about the matter.

Magazines for March.—We are indebted to Archibald Wilson, 175 East Water Street, for Putnam and Household Words for March, and "the Schoolfellow," for the same month. The latter is a great and deserved favorite with youthful readers. Wilson is in receipt of various new publications.

New Publications.—We are indebted to Mr. E. C. Arnold, 175 East Water street, (East side) for an early copy of Putnam for March. It is a capital number, and among the leading articles are, an interesting sketch of St. Augustine, a review of Macaulay's History of England, additional chapters of "Owlcopse" and "Living in the Country," and an admirable paper on our Sea Coast Defence. Putnam maintains its high reputation and improves with age.

We are also indebted to Mr. Arnold for "Household Words" for March—full, as usual, of pleasant and palatable reading.

Spring Trade.—The advertisement of S. Johnson, Jr., on our third page, will attract attention. In this old, well-established, and well-conducted Drug Store, country merchants and customers generally can always be sure of finding genuine articles, fair prices and courteous treatment.

Milwaukee and Watertown R. R. The receipts of this road, for the past month of February, were as follows: Passengers, $2561,63; Freight, $4378,94—total, $6934,57. The road is in good order, doing a fair business, and when extended to Columbus and Portage City must pay handsomely.

Union Up Again.—The members of Hook & Ladder Company request us to say that the flag on their house was hoisted by a boy who did not understand the business, and that the blunder he made, in raising the flag, Union down, was not noticed by any member, or it would have been promptly rectified.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NEW YORK, March 5.

Details of the late Mexican news, via New Orleans are quite interesting; from Vera Cruz it is stated that the Castle of San Juan de Ulloa pronounced in favor of Tamerez, on the night of the 12th and 13th ult., notified the city that if it did not surrender by noon, it would be bombarded. At 11½ o'clock, the city not having surrendered, a fire was opened by the Castle, which lasted one hour. Two persons were wounded, and some little damage done to the buildings.—Nothing further occurred till the 19th, when the War Steamer Geurrero, came in to tow out the National ship Gaudaloupe, and then the Castle fired into her for fifteen minutes, five shot taking effect, killing the 1st Lieut. and four men, and wounding several others; meantime a bomb shell from Fort San Diego, fell in the Castle, blowing up an amunition chest, killing and wounding sixteen men.

NINE O'CLOCK REPORT.

OSWEGO, March 5.

At the election held in this city yesterday, the entire Citizens ticket was elected, headed by L. B. Crocker.

WASHINGTON, March 5.

Senate.—The Senate confirmed Lyman Trumbull in his seat for six years from March 4th last, by the following vote, ayes 35, nays 9.

Mr. Butler defended Mr. Atchison from the charges of his interference in the affairs of Kansas.

Mr. Toucey took similar grounds.

Mr. Hall replied, and drew a sketch of some New England politicians who seemed to think that the curse originally pronounced upon the Tempter belonged to them, viz: "upon thy belly thou shalt creep and dust shalt thou eat,"—thus they bow down before the Slave power which dispenses a large share of the patronage and making great pretensions of devotion to the Constitution then assail they accused every man of treason, who dared to assert his manhood and claimed the right to speak and act for himself.

Mr. Toucey having used the words "mean and despicable," explained to Mr. Hale that he meant them to apply those who are not willing to accord to others what they claim for themselves relative to rights in common territory.

Mr. Wilson took exceptions to some of Mr. T.'s remarks, and intimated that he considered Mr. T. beneath contempt.

Mr. Houston wanted to know whether this was to be a "free fight?"

Mr. Seward—"Yes"

Mr. Houston—"Then I move an adjournment." Carried.

House.—Mr. Stevens, from committee on elections presented a minority report which sets forth that Mr. Reeder's sole object in his application seems to be to devolve upon the Court and thus make enquiry into the validity of the Territorial laws under which Mr. Whitfield was elected, and their case hinges on the ground that the members of the Legislature to pass that law were not themselves properly elected and returned—it is to establish this, that Mr. Reeder wishes to send for persons and papers; making the House not only the judges of the qualifications of its own members but also of members of the Territorial Legislature, and which of course follows of the State Legislature. This would be assuming a position not properly pertaining to the House, and establish a precedent of a dangerous tendency.

Finally if the House concludes that the examination shall be made, the end would be better attained by sending commissioners to Kansas, to take such testimony as may be pertinent and consistent whereas sending for persons and papers would occasion much delay and inconvenience, even if it did not prove impractable.

Accompanying the report is a paper from Mr. Whitfield who submits that Mr. Reeder has not a right to be heard, as he was not a candidate when Mr. N. was elected, nor was he a candidate at any election although by law. Testimony proposed is not competent to prove the truth of Mr. Reeder's statement. Mr. R. was Governor when the election took place, and was concluded by Judges appointed by Mr. R. who took the proscribed oath to reject non residents. The members of the Kansas Legislature took their seats without cavil or complaint from Gov. R., who commissioned those very members, by whom was supposed the law under which Whitfield was passed. The pretext of Gov. R. is, that the members of the Legislature were illegally elected which stops him, in view of the facts stated, from further proceedings.

The Report is signed by Oliver, of Missouri, Stephens, of Go. and Smith of Ala. A further consideration of the subject was postponed till to-morrow.

The House went into Committee of the whole.

NEW YORK, March 5.

The Mail steamer Illinois sailed to-day for Aspinwall. She took out a large number of California emigrants. The steamer Canada sailed at noon for Liverpool. She took out 56 passengers, but no specie.

BINGHAMPTON, March 5.

The American Ticket was elected at our city election by 350 majority.

WASHINGTON, MARCH, 6.

Senate confirmed the claim of Mr. Trumbull to his seat.

House.—The consideration of the report of the committee on election was postponed till to-morrow.

The Kansas affairs were discussed in both houses.

PIANOS AND MELODEONS ONLY

IN ALL LARGE CITIES the PIANO and MELODEON trade is a department by itself, requiring the entire attention of the manufacturer or dealer. Believing that such an establishment can be sustained in this Musical City, the subscriber will devote his time to the trade in Pianos and Melodeons exclusively.

During the past week he has received an additional supply to his before extensive stock and now offers a complete assortment of very superior 6, 6¼, 6½, 6¾ and 7 octave Pianos, in rich and beautiful cases, chaste but not gaudy from manufacturers of established and unequaled reputation, viz:

LIGHTE, NEWTON & BRADBURY, New York.
JOHN B. DUNHAM, New York.
HALLET, DAVIS & Co., Boston.
MASON & HAMLIN'S MODEL MELODEONS.

The subscriber regulates and tunes his Pianos and Melodeons if necessary after they arrive in Milwaukee, himself personally, thereby insuring as perfect order and tune in the instrument as when it left the manufactory.

Capital over $165,000, in Cash & Premium Notes.

THIS COMPANY offers unrivalled facilities for the insurance of Buildings and Personal Property against fire. The advantages offered are security beyond the reach of circumstances, as the real estate insured is by law bound for the assessment made to cover losses beyond the power of evasion. Every person insured is a member of the Company, and entitled to one vote. The cost of insurance does not exceed one-third as much as in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incomparable care with which losses are settled. During the last five years, this Company have issued 2600 Policies, and made but three assessments, at a cost to the property insured, not exceeding two mills on the dollar.—Its business is principally confined to this State.

They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planing or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a Machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of — horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to the former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine and Blacksmithing business. In regard to the character of the work got up by this the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation through the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man.

The Oldest Establishment in the State,

They continue to manufacture FLOUR and SAW MILL GEARING, and STEAM ENGINES, on the most approved principle.

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORKS, such as GUAGE AND CYLINDER COCKS, OIL CUPS AND COCKS, and STEAM WHISTLES. Also TURTON'S FILES, which they will sell at the lowest cash price.

They are also Agents for EASTMAN'S PATENT STEAM GUAGES, which are well worth the attention of all those who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

EVARTS'

PATENT SHINGLE MILL

EVARTS & BUTLER,

PROPRIETORS & MANUFACTURERS,

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

THE SMOOTHNESS OF THE WORK WHICH GIVES this Mill its superiority, is produced by making the cut in the direction of the fibre of the wood.

The ease with which wood is worked in that direction gives it speed of execution; and the flexibility of the shingle width-wise relieves the saw, so that it may be ground thin on its edge, so as to cut away but little of the wood.

The shingles now made with this mill sell in this market seventy-five cents per thousand higher than any other sawed shingles.

This mill is made entirely of Iron—strong, simple and of the best workmanship, easily worked, and not liable to get out of order.

READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVE

PROFESSOR WOOD'S Hair Restorative is no doubt the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, grey hair to its original color, cover the head of the bald with a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruff and itching, cure all Scrofula and other cutaneous eruptions, such as scald head, &c. It will cure as if by magic, nervous or periodical headache, make the hair soft, glossy, and wavy, and preserve the color perfectly, and the hair from falling to extreme old age. We could give the testimony of more than one hundred thousand to the truth of every word we have written. See circular and the following:

CARLYLE, Ill., June 29, 1855.

I have used Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admitted its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought prematurely grey; but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.

SIDNEY BREESE,
Ex-Senator United States.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 10, 1852.

Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir—As you are about to manufacture extensively and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it; that I have for several years been in the habit of using other hair restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head from dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would therefore recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture of hair.

Respectfully yours,
WILSON KING

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friends in New Bedford, thus:

To your inquiries I would reply that when I first commenced using Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and had been so for the last ten years and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very loose and pulled out freely; but I found that before I had used the second bottle up (which was eight weeks) my hair was entirely changed to its original color (light brown) and is now free from dandruff and quite moist. I have had my hair cut five or six times since the change, and have never seen anything like white hair starting from the roots, and it is now as thick as it ever was, and does not come out at all. It has proved in my case all that I could wish or ask.

Yours, &c., ———.

July 1, 1854.

GARDNER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Mr. Dyer: Dear Sir—I have used two bottles of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it, I was as grey as a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours, &c.,
DANIEL N. MURPHY.

ST. LOUIS, March 7, 1854.

Prof. Wood:—My hair commenced falling off some three or four years since, and continued to do so until I became quite bald. I tried all the popular medicines of the day, but to no effect. At last I was induced to try your celebrated Hair Restorative, and am happy to say it is doing wonders. I have now a fine growth of young hair, and cheerfully recommend its use to all similarly afflicted.

A. O. WILLMANSON,
188 Second Street.

ST. LOUIS, June 23, 1852.

Prof. Wood:—As you are about to prepare and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, and as you request my opinion of it, I will state that my hair was, a few months ago, very grey; and after using two bottles of your Hair Restorative, it assumed its original color, and since its application all dandruff has disappeared from my head, and I have been troubled with no disagreeable itching of the scalp. I am satisfied those who use it will not regret it, as it gives the appearance of having been recently oiled. I am prepared, therefore, to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair.

I am, sir, yours, &c.,
H. L. STEWART.

DR. WEAVER'S

CANKER & SALT RHEUM SYRUP & CERATE.

IT IS AN UNDISPUTABLE FACT THAT the above medicines are the only infallible remedies now before the public for cutaneous Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Sore Legs, Ulcers, Old Fever Sores, Scald Head, Scorbutic Eruptions, &c., &c.

Cases that the most eminent Physicians have despaired of relieving, immediately yielded to their active powers, and when used in accordance with the printed directions, which accompany each bottle, the Syrup and Cerate combined eradicates any of the above named diseases, and leaves the sufferer without a blemish. These medicines are too well known to require anything more than a plain statement of facts. The joyful intelligence is coming in daily from East, West, North and South, of wonderful cures they are preforming.

See what is said by those who have used these medicines:

The Rev. Samuel Henry, of Palmer, Mass., says, "they have done me more good than all the other medicines I have used for Erysipelas;"

Capt. William Vail, of the steamer Granite State, says: "they have cured my daughter of Salt Rheum and Scald Head of six years' standing. She was literally covered with sores; is now perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup and Cerate."

Dr. A. J. Johnson, of North Wardsboro, Vt., says, "a Scrofulous diease of the hip joint, and Scald Head in the same child, have been cured by the Syrup and Cerate."

Rev. August Bolles says "it has cured the Salt Rheum in my leg."

J. Hatfield Fraser, Esq., editor of the Somerset Whig, Somerville, N. J., says "my mother has been completely cured of a severe case of Tetter of long standing, that had defied the skill of the best Physicians."

Hon. Joel Loomis, of East Lyme, Conn., says, "I was completely cured of Erysipelas in my legs, after a council of the best Physicians in the County had pronounced the disease incurable, (at my age which was seventy-eight years, but Weaver's Syrup and Cerate did the work at once."

Elias Latham, Esq., of Orient, Long Island, N. Y., says, "I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicines. I have been afflicted for more than thirty years with Salt Rheum in its worst form. I tried several Physicians in New York, Brooklyn and Greenport. I have dieted and taken medicines enough to float a pretty large boat, but they did me no good. I have taken your medicines one year, and am now able to work and sleep with out an ache or a pain, and my neighbors say I am the sprightliest man on the Island."

The Rev. J. S. Swan, of New London, says, I have used the Syrup and Cerate in my family for more than a year and I consider it completely adapted to sustain the high reputation that is claimed for it. I have seen it used in number of cases for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, with entire success.

Ask Seth Frisbery, of Taunton, Mass., what the medicines will do; ask William Barber, of Three Mile Bay, Jeff Co., N. Y., what the syrup has done for him; ask G. F. & W. H. Boynton, of Perkinsville, Vt.; ask F. L. Kent, of Chicago, Ill; ask Martha Cottle, of Martha's Vineyard, Mass; ask Wm F. Keahles, or Wm P. Benjamin, Esq., of New London; ask Dr. H. M. Murdock, of Pulaski, N. Y.; ask J. C Smith, of Brooklyn N. Y., who was cured of Scrofula, after losing his leg by the disease, and suffering for years, has been perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup & Cerate; ask Curtis Burrough, of Shelby, N. Y., who has been cured of a severe case of Salt Rheum; ask Chas. Akin of Hume, N. Y., what the Syrup and Cerate will do for sore legs; ask Winslow and Slafter, Merchants, Virgil, N. Y. what it is cured of Fever Sores. In a word, ask every body who has ever tried these wonderful medicines, and the answer will be the same—THEY CURE.
